COURSE 0024: MHM SYSTEMS NETWORKING AND NETSTARTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this course is to teach the attendee how to:

- Install AMS Suite Machinery Health Manager Standalone and Network (Remote Host, LANs and WANs)
- Configure Windows Services
- Set up CSI Hardware devices
- Define required permissions
- Administration of the application
- Backups
- Connectivity Troubleshooting

SUGGESTED ATTENDEES:

Projects personnel for Emerson
Projects personnel for Emerson Reps
Services personnel for Emerson
Services personnel for Emerson Reps
Support personnel for Emerson
Support personnel for Emerson Reps

DURATION: 3 Days

PREREQUISITES:

Understanding of Microsoft networking including the following:

- Share permissions, NTFS permissions, Domains, Trusts, and TCP/IP version 4
- Understanding of Citrix and or Terminal Server, both clients and servers
- Knowledge of Hardware associated with AMS Suite Machinery Health Manager

AGENDA

DAY	TOPIC	COMMENTS
DAY 1	Course Description Overview AMS Machinery Health Manager Overview Technologies Maintenance and Security Software Installation Analyzer Communications Administration Operating RBM Network Administration	Includes Quizzes and Hands on Exercises
DAY 2	Manage Users Manage User Permissions Data Lockers Manage Database Servers Manage Database Access Online Server	Includes Quizzes and Hands on Exercises
DAY 3	Exam	Theory and Practical Exams